

a Savior for All

Message Title: God's New Covenant

Luke 1:76-80 | Sunday AM, November 15th, 2020 | Pastor Jack Lamb

76 And you, child, will be called the prophet of the Highest; For you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways,

77 To give knowledge of salvation to His people By the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God, With which the Dayspring from on high has visited us;

79 To give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, To guide our feet into the way of peace."

80 So the child grew and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Sermon Application Questions

- 1. How would you encourage someone who was waiting on God?*
- 2. How does this message address those who believe God wants everyone to prosper (have health and wealth) if they only believe?*
- 3. Why are people inclined to think that they can do something to save themselves? How does Romans 9:16 refute this?*
- 4. Will the fact that God offers forgiveness by His mercy lead to loose living? Why/why not?*
- 5. How can we deepen our daily awareness of God's tender mercy toward us?*
- 6. Agree/disagree: No one can become a Christian without bending their will to God. How can we be clear about this when sharing the gospel?*

BE A DOER. Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Phil 2:12-13; 1 Tim 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions: (1) How does God want my beliefs/actions to change? (2) How can I accomplish this change? (3) What is the first step toward bringing about this change?
