

Message Title: Better Together

Psalm 133 | Sunday AM, February 28st, 2021 | Pastor Jack Lamb

1 A Song of Ascents. Of David.

Behold, how good and how pleasant it is

For brethren to dwell together in unity!

2 It is like the precious oil upon the head,

Running down on the beard, The beard of Aaron,

Running down on the edge of his garments.

3 It is like the dew of Hermon,

Descending upon the mountains of Zion;

For there the Lord commanded the blessing-- Life forevermore.

Introduction

- Because Unity is _____

Sermon Application Questions

1. What are some common causes of disunity?
2. If you have a complaint against a person in the church, is it ever appropriate to discuss it with someone else? If yes, when and why?
3. Should we try to attract people to church by offering to meet their needs? What kind of unity would that create?
4. What can we do to encourage unity that is based on our shared commitment to Jesus?
5. What would it look like for our church to work together in evangelism?

BE A DOER. Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Phil 2:12-13; 1 Tim 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions: (1) How does God want my beliefs/actions to change? (2) How can I accomplish this change? (3) What is the first step toward bringing about this change?
