

Message Title: Loving One Another

Introduction

Romans 12:9-13 | Sunday AM, April 18th, 2021 | Pastor Jack Lamb ⁹Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor what is evil. Cling to what is good. ¹⁰Be kindly affectionate to one another with brotherly love, in honor giving preference to one another; ¹¹ not lagging in diligence, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord; ¹² rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing steadfastly in prayer; ¹³ distributing to the needs of the saints, given to hospitality.

Sermon Application Questions

- 1. Why is it important to recognize that love is a command, not a feeling? If we obey the command without the feelings, are we being hypocritical?
- 2. How can we develop godly hatred for evil?
- 3. How do you usually pray when you're in a trial? In light of Col. 1:9-12, should your prayer focus shift? If so, how?
- 4. How can we determine a proper level of living in light of other's poverty? Is it wrong to live comfortably while others are not?
- 5. Why is hospitality such an important part of being a Christian?

BE A DOER. Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Phil 2:12-13; 1 Tim 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions: (1) How does God want my beliefs/actions to change? (2) How can I accomplish this change? (3) What is the first step toward bringing about this change?
