

Message Title: Experiencing the Resurrection

Luke 24:1-12 LSB | Sunday AM, April 17th, 2022 Jack Lamb

1 Now on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb bringing the spices which they had prepared.2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.4 And it happened that while they were perplexed about this, behold, two men suddenly stood near them in dazzling clothing,5 and when the women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living One among the dead? 6 He is not here, but He has risen. Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee,7 saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again."8 And they remembered His words,9 and when they returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.10 Now Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the rest of the women with them were there; they were telling these things to the apostles.11 But these words appeared to them as nonsense, and they were not believing them.12 But Peter stood up and ran to the tomb; and stooping to look in, he saw the linen wrappings only. And he went away by himself, marveling at what had

Application Questions

- 1. Is all doubting sin? How can we know when we cross the line from honest questions that we need to work through to sinful doubting that we need to confess?
- 2. How would you counsel a person who has been deeply disappointed with God? What should they do first?
- 3. What are the main causes of your spiritual disappointments? How can you anticipate and minimize them?
- 4. Some argue that simple faith (with no repentance) is all that is needed for salvation. How would you refute this?
- 5. Discuss: The Great Commission is every Christian's job, not just the job of those gifted in evangelism.

BE A DOER. Your responsibility, by God's enabling, is to consistently apply the divine principles and truths you have heard (Phil 2:12-13; 1 Tim 4:7-9; James 1:22-27). As you meditate on this message, ask yourself these questions: (1) How does God want my beliefs/actions to change? (2) How can I accomplish this change? (3) What is the first step toward bringing about this change?
